Secretary of State's Office Releases Proposition Numbers to 14 Ballot Measures Certified for the November General Election

Invites Public to Submit Ballot Arguments, For or Against Measures, by Tuesday, July 6, 2004

SACRAMENTO—The Secretary of State's office today announced proposition numbers for the 14 measures that will appear on the November 2, 2004 general election ballot. Two of the measures were placed on the ballot by the legislature, and 12 measures qualified to be placed on the ballot through the petition process.

The order of the type of state measure to be placed on the ballot is specified by Elections Code (EC) 13115. The EC requires the following order: bond measures; constitutional amendments; other legislative measures; initiative measures; and referenda.

The agency also issued an invitation to interested California citizens to submit arguments for or against any of the ballot measures. It should be noted that the titles of the measures may change after the Attorney General prepares the official ballot titles, labels and summaries, which will be available for public examination during the ballot pamphlet public display period, Tuesday, July 20 through Monday, August 9, 2004.

Listed below are the measures (with assigned proposition numbers) that will appear on the November ballot in the order of legislative adoption and initiative qualification:

- 59 SCA 1 (Resolution Chapter 1, 2004). Burton. Access to government information.
- 60 SCA 18 (Resolution Chapter 103, 2004). Johnson. Primary elections: surplus state property.
